

God has done it again! We've stood strong in our confession that God is our provider... that He is not limited in how He provides for His children. As when we declare on Sunday mornings during offering time, "... finding money, receiving gifts, inheritances, etc..." – well, this time our Father did it via the IRS. I received a letter this week from the IRS informing me I had overpaid my tax. Not only are they sending me a refund, but with interest! What a mighty God we serve! He does know our needs. I thank Him for everything I have, for it all belongs to Him... I am merely His caretaker.
