

Wednesday night we had Kingdom Ministry Training on the Gift of Prophecy. During the activation and declaration time we were leaning against the wall as the KMT Ministry Team walked around laying hands on each of us, declaring the Spirit of Prophecy over us. During this, I started to feel a sort of a buzz or something like an infilling starting in the center of my forehead. Soon it engulfed my entire head.

That night I had some very vivid dreams with words I believe came from God. The words were very clear and focused. After hearing the words in each dream, I woke immediately and had clarity of what I just experienced.

KMT is helping me to have a better relationship with the Holy Spirit... in His filling me and using me. My mind is quieter.

WOW! Thank you for your gifts Lord! You are Great!! (Jerry Benjamin)
