

I found myself very shut down in most areas of my life at the end of 2012. Outside of my immediate family, I felt very disconnected. Though I'm a positive, giving, and full of life type of person, I struggled to even go to church, let alone do anything else.

When Genesis announced the Kingdom Ministry Training class—learning to walk naturally in the supernatural, I knew I was supposed to attend. God is so amazing! Not only did I get free from all the heaviness that life had put on me these last few years, God reminded me of my purpose in life. I started to dream again. He has given me a business that allows me to reconnect with the people I have a heart for—women!

Through this class I have learned to rest in Him instead of trying to figure everything out. He shows me daily how much He loves me by giving me things most individuals might think trivial. Life is far from perfect presently, but I am overwhelmed with joy and gratitude, knowing that no matter what happens, all I have to do is close my eyes and draw close to him. (Anna Warfield)
